UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
NORTHERN DISTRICT OF CALIFORNIA
SAN FRANCISCO

JAMES PORATH, individually and on behalf of all others similarly situated,

Plaintiff,

v.

LOGITECH, INC.,

Defendant.

Case No. 3:18-cv-03091-WHA

DECLARATION OF JAMES PORATH

12 Pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1746, I hereby declare and state as follows:

13 1. This declaration is based upon my personal knowledge unless otherwise
14 indicated. If called upon to testify as to the matters stated herein, I could and would competently 15 do so.

16 2. This declaration supplements the declaration I filed at Dkt. 61-2. It identifies three
17 incidents which I had forgotten about until my attorney reminded me of them during a phone call
18 on October 6, 2019. As I testified in my deposition, these incidents—all of which are more than a
19 decade old—are faint in my memory, and had no significance in my life as compared to the more
20 recent and far more serious incidents identified in my declaration at Dkt. 61-2.

21 3. On September 26, 2001, I was cited in Arizona for allowing my younger brother's
22 girlfriend, who was not licensed to drive, to drive a car I was a passenger in. I did not pay the 23 ticket or show up for the Court hearing. I have learned recently from my attorneys that I was 24 charged with a misdemeanor for that failure to appear. But the charges were dismissed in 2006
25 and the case was purged in 2012.

26 4. On December 20, 2004, I was arrested outside a Fry's electronics store in San 27 Diego on suspicion of shoplifting. I was not shoplifting, and do not know why I was arrested. I
28

1 do not know if any charges were ever even filed, as I was released three days later and nothing
2 ever came of the incident. I understand that my attorneys have researched this incident and
3 believe that if there ever were any charges, they have now been expunged.

4 5. On September 1, 2009, I pleaded guilty to two misdemeanors in Riverside
5 County: (i) Harassing by Telephone, and (ii) Contempt of Court. As with the San Bernardino
6 County incidents disclosed in Dkt. 61-2, these charges relate to a dispute with another man
7 regarding his interactions with my (now) ex-wife. As I testified during my deposition, I barely
8 remember this incident, as it bleeds together with approximately three years of other incidents
9 relating to the breakdown of my marriage (which was a dark period in my life).

10 6. Between Dkt. 61-2 and this filing, my criminal record has been fully disclosed.

12 I declare under penalty of perjury that the foregoing is true and correct.

13 Executed on 10/10/2019 at Twentynine Palms, California.
